

This course which fulfills New Jersey's graduation requirement for Fine and Performing Arts. The choral music program at the high school level is to be based on curriculum and instruction standards that incorporate:

Responding to music in subjective, aesthetic, analytic and evaluative ways assessments.

Thinking abstractly through music.

Interpreting music as a reflection of the life, values and ideas of this and other cultures.

Increasing awareness, respect and appreciation for the musical heritage of America and that of other countries. Interpreting ideas, attitudes and feelings effectively through musical involvement.

Acquiring a sense of ensemble and successfully participate in performance.

Demonstrating growth in auditory perception, music literacy and as members of an audience through purposeful and critical observation and listening.

Becoming life-long learners and lovers of music as a consumer, performer, creator or teacher.