

The Personal Financial Literacy course is designed to introduce students to the world of finance, including the concepts, functions, and skills required for meeting the challenges of money management and financial planning in the twenty-first century. Students will learn the skills and concepts necessary to survive in the ever-changing marketplace, such as banking and credit, saving and investing, financial planning, budgeting, insurance, and consumer awareness.